Dear Friend:

I am sure you are not too surprised to be receiving a letter from me. I really should have written you before, but the baseball has been so up in the air, we were going ahead very slowly. It looks now like we will be able to operate, but of course we will not be surprised at what happens, and when.

I wrote to Virginia Union last week, and had an answer saying they would accomodate the team as before. This means I will have to ask you to contact the park for me, and see if we will be able to playtice in it. Please take care of this right away, because if we cannot have the park we will have to look for some place else. We are planning to come to camp the last of March or the first of April.

In the meantime see if you can get the Richmond schedule. Our league is meeting in New York this week end, and they may try to make up the schedule. We usually wait until later than this, but everything is off schedule this year. As soon as you can get the schedule or the dates in Richmond please send them to me.

I will be looking to hear from you soon.

Very Truly Yours
